Tony,
Hey we did have a great turnout last night, and whats even better is we had some people ask when we were going to do it again! I know i had fun, and there was a lot of other people that had fun. We need to get the leaders together again, and start discussing the ativities we want to do real soon, caus ei think if we catch the spirit now while the memories are still fresh in our heads, we will get quite a response! KEEP THE FAITH!

Tony,
I know you are exhausted from this morning plus you are going to the dance at St Mary's, but it has all been worth it. I have heard nothing but praises about today and some of the praises came from your biggest sceptics. None of our family has ever attended a function at StMary's until tonight. Just knowing you will be there encouraged alot of kids to go; they won't be "alone" in the crowd. The two church groups have notoriously kept at arms length from each other, and now they have a catalyst towards unity. All in all, it has been truly the hand of God that has moved every step of the day.

Thanks for all your hard work, worry and sweat. You will be richly rewarded by the One that truly cares..

Marty

Hi sir,

I am Chris, Cindy's friend. Its neat to be mailing you, because Cindy always talks so highly of you. From what she says you seem to be a very exciting, funny, and motivating person. Great qualities, in my opinion, for a person in your position.

Tony,
Hi! I just talked to Jay at school and he said you wanted to have another leader meeting. I thought that was a great meeting. I think in the evening would be best, so you can meet my best friend Cara. You'll like her:) She's exactly like me! We think with the same brain:) Anyway, any night really would be good. Thursdays are always big homework nights, so I think Tuesdays would be best! I am so excited about this. You are doing a great job! Thank you so much! Bye bye!
